Centro Publications is committed to the generation, transmission, and application of knowledge to serve the needs of the Puerto Rican population in the United States. We aim to provide a voice to practitioners working in the field of Puerto Ricans studies and will continue to diversify as the field does.

Publications from the Center for Puerto Rican Studies explore the Puerto Rican experiences of the diaspora. Our publications are multidisciplinary and showcase the cutting-edge research done in the field of Puerto Rican studies. They include different formats and mediums: the pre-eminent award winning journal, books, policy briefs and research reports, films and documentaries, and posters.
